Fiction and Nonfiction News from Janet Litherland

Volume 1 • Issue 1
January 2006

Dear Readers,

Welcome to my personal newsletter! After this initial “launch” (which gives you a quick look at some of my experience), I’ll be writing about books other than my own—favorite authors, books I’m reading—and I’ll be encouraging every one of you to write your memoirs, the gift that keeps on living! “News You Can Use” will still be published by my former business partner and new owner of Write-Choice Services, Inc., Tim Morrison. I hope you enjoy this new project!

Novel #3
nearing completion:

The Lost Years

This story is set in contemporary Georgia and a variety of World War II military installations. Through old letters between a soldier—who was reported missing in action—and his sweetheart, and the relentless pursuit of information by his granddaughter 50 years later, a long-buried family secret unfolds—one that could prove dangerous to remaining family members.

Six of Janet’s 12 Books—An Overview

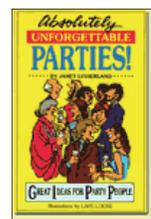

Chain of Deception (the second novel). Five revealing letters and a death send a Florida woman across Ireland in search of family secrets hidden since the tragic uprising of 1969. This book is about dreams and the courage it takes to follow them. It also is about loving, forgiving, growing and changing. Illustrated by professional artist, Bob Dixon.

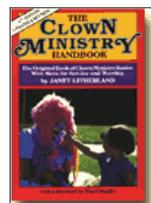

Discovery In Time (the first novel). This is the story of two women, Andrea Ferris in present-day, and Jenny Alcott in the 1890s. Andrea discovers Jenny’s diaries in the attic of her Victorian home, and Jenny’s life becomes the catalyst that enables Andrea to make peace with her own past. Andrea’s baby died, but Jenny’s was taken from her. Throughout her life, Jenny tried without success to find her child. One hundred and ten years later, Andrea takes up the search. Illustrated by Bob Dixon.

Storytelling From The Bible. Storytelling how-to and the material. Forty-six fascinating tales featuring some of the Bible’s most colorful characters and stories, many of which are among the lesser known: The Dethronement of Vashti, The Replacing of Judas Iscariot, The Lost City, and The Scapegoat, to name a few.

Absolutely Unforgettable Parties. Twenty-three creative ideas for party people. Each party has a plan with checklists, gives food suggestions with recipes, and do-it-yourself invitations. Some “unforgettables” are: Shape Launching (Beginning of a Diet), Retire With Fire (End of Wage Slavery), Come As You Were (Reincarnation Party), Murder We Wrote (a Whodunit), and For Women Only (Victorian Tea). Reached #2 on “Small Press Top 10 Best Sellers” list.

The Clown Ministry Handbook. Describes the Biblical beginning, history, and current activities of clown ministry. Covers clown types, makeup tricks, wardrobe and props, performance techniques, skits and scripts, and provides information on organizing a clown group, opportunities for outreach, and responsibility. The most comprehensive book on the subject. Now in its fourth, newly expanded edition. Winner of a “Book of the Year” award from GROUP Magazine.

Broadway Costumes on a Budget. One hundred famous Broadway musicals categorized into eight costume types: Medieval/Shakespearean; The Old West; The Turn of the Century; The 1920s; The 1930s-1940s; The 1950s-1960s; Myriad Periods; In Your Dreams. By applying this book’s crossover system, costumes from one show can be easily altered for any other show in the same category. Co-authored with Sue McAnally.
